Sub: Amendment of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, so as to make offences under section 374 C.P.C. cognizable.

Letter no. P.L. 17 (60) dated 2-6-'54 from the Under Secy. to the G. of I., Ministry of Labour,
New Delhi.

The P. U. C. may please be perused. The Govt. of India have stated that the existence of forced labour in some of the States has been brought to their notice and that the Commissioner for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes has suggested that the code of Criminal Procedure be amended to make forced labour a cognizable offence. They have therefore requested that detailed information in respect of the points raised in their letter may be furnished to them by the 30th June,
'54.

It may be pointed out here that we have already informed the G. of I. that there is no exaction of forced labour in Coorg.

In the circumstances, it is for consideration whether the G. of I. may be informed that forced labour is not in existence in codeq and that this State.

Govt. has no objection to the proposal to make the offences under S. 374. S.P.C. a cognizable one.
